GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Congratulations to the Palo Verde Japanese students who represented our school and competed in the 14th Annual Japanese Speech Contest this past Saturday! In spite of steep competition from across the valley, our Palo Verde Japanese-speaking panthers placed in every category that they competed in!!! Teachers and students from Centennial, Silverado, Spring Valley, Clark, Desert Oasis, and the Las Vegas Academy were surprised and amazed to see Palo Verde have such a clear victory in the overall number of champions coming from Palo Verde High School.

Great job and Omedetou Goza-i-mas to the following students:

Noam David- 1st place in Level I

Joseph Gewelber-Williams- 1st place in Level II

Tianrui Li- 2nd place in Level III

Thomas Dewitt- 3rd place in Level IV against the most competitors

O-medetou Goza-i-mas!

Come out Saturday to the Palo football field at 10:00 to walk then learn about cancer from the IB students. MARCH FORWARD TO PREVENT CANCER!

To celebrate National School Breakfast Week (March 5th - 9th), we will be offering a Breakfast Bar at breakfast in the cafeteria. The breakfast bar will be located in the same area as the salad bar. We will be offering your choice of Turkey sticks, cheese sticks, hard boiled eggs, cinnamon rolls, corn muffins, yogurt, granola, peaches, milk and juice.

The breakfast bar is offered at $1.50 and is covered under the free and reduced lunch program as well. You will need to choose 1 fruit or juice, and 2 different items from the selection.

In addition to the breakfast bar, we will also be serving the regular breakfast menu from the windows.

The end of the quarter is coming soon. Do you need to raise your grade in math or science. Science National Honor Society would like to help. Please come to room 821A for tutoring in math and room 902 for tutoring in Science
